The Indiana Funeral Directors Association Awards 4 Scholarships

The Indiana Funeral Education Foundation is committed to excellence in funeral service education and awards four student scholarships. The Isaac Ball Scholarship is in honor of IFDA's first president and Terre Haute funeral director. This scholarship looks to identify the deserving student who exemplifies the understanding of, and dedication to the philosophy and standards of funeral service who also intends to practice funeral service in Indiana. This scholarship is for $5,000.

The other two scholarships are the Bo Hagemier Scholarship and the Renee' Parker Scholarship and are in memory of their dedicated service to funeral service. These two scholarships are $2,500 each. Bo Hagemier served four decades as IFDA legal counsel and was instrumental in authoring much of the Indiana funeral laws overseeing the profession today; Renee' Parker worked tirelessly on behalf of Indiana funeral service at IFDA for 21 years. These two scholarships are awarded to qualified funeral service students who plan to complete their education and then serve the public in their chosen career in the State of Indiana. The Isaac Ball Scholarship is funded by an endowment funded by Isaac Ball Fellow donors to the foundation and the other is funded by the foundation itself.

The Frank Moore Scholarship is provided by IFDA Executive Director Andy Clayton, through the Indiana Funeral Education Foundation. Actual selection is done by a committee of the Foundation. It is to assist a qualified non-traditional student with their funeral service education. A "non-traditional" student is defined as one starting or returning to college after a break of at least 5 years from high school or another college and intending work in Indiana as a licensed funeral director. This would include those entering funeral service as a second career, following military service, or starting their career after raising children. Evidence of need will be considered but is not a requirement for award. The scholarship is for $2,500.

Selection is conducted by the Indiana Funeral Education Foundation Board of Directors
